

Is Pilgrimage in tune with the teachings of the church?

Presbyterian Pilgrimage is faithful to the teaching of scripture and to the reformed doctrine of the Presbyterian church. The teaching follows a detailed format and is guided or performed by PC(USA) clergy.

Do I have to be invited to attend Pilgrimage?

No! If you are interested in attending, then God may be nudging you - answer His call!

I hear that not everyone is accepted to attend Pilgrimage. Is that true?

Each application is prayerfully considered. Space restrictions sometimes mean we have a waiting list. Because Pilgrimage serves the whole state of Colorado, we may need to put an application on hold to ensure we have the best possible mix of people from different churches, age groups, and genders. If your application is held, you will be placed at the head of the list for the next Pilgrimage.

Do men and women attend Pilgrimage at the same time?

Yes. Singles and married couples are welcome. So that couples may share the experience of the weekend with the freedom to respond individually, spouses attending together are housed separately and are placed in different small groups.

The hand of God is on your life.

DO YOU FEEL IT?

Why Pilgrimage?

Would you like to experience a bigger measure of what the disciples experienced as they walked with Jesus? Do you want your "first love" of Christ to be rekindled, and love from other Christians to become a bedrock reality in your life?

You are invited on a three-day retreat experience called Presbyterian Pilgrimage. You will journey with other men and women who are looking for more in their spiritual life ... people like you who are longing for intimacy with God and a transformed life. You will find an environment of support, encouragement, and accountability that can lead you to become the believer you have longed to be.

What is Pilgrimage?

A Pilgrimage spiritual renewal weekend is led by fellow Presbyterian members and pastors. These people will guide your renewal weekend in such a way that you will see God's love and healing for you. There is great support even after the weekend concludes, and you will find new ways to live a vibrant life of Christian love in your church and community.

Give God a chance to speak to you. Attend a Presbyterian Pilgrimage spiritual renewal weekend.

"The overall feeling of bathing and basking in God's love was meaningful to me."

"I could feel God's delight in me!"

"I can't believe how many people were praying for me."

"The sense of outpouring love was overwhelming."

"I saw God's love in action!"

Who is it for?

Presbyterian Pilgrimage is for adults who want to deepen their relationships with Christ. If you have been looking for a way to take the next step in your discipleship, attending a Pilgrimage weekend is a great place to start.

How do I sign up?

To attend, fill out the enclosed application form and send it to:
Pilgrimage Registrar
First Presbyterian Church
219 E. Bijou Street
Colorado Springs, CO 80903

Costs for the weekend are for lodging and meals. Since staff members pay their own expenses and most of the materials used during the weekend are contributed by fellow Presbyterians, costs are kept to a minimum. Partial scholarships are available for those who could not otherwise attend.
